

ChaNNels

The Newsletter of the Sailing Club of Washington

December 2011

Commodore's Log

Treasurer's Report

2012 Proposed Budget

Meet the New Board

[2011 Awards &
Recognition](#)

CPR Training

Upcoming Events

[The Afterglow
January 7, 2012](#)

[Happy Hour and
Member Meeting
February 13, 2012
New Venue!](#)

[Re-Up Brunch
March 11, 2012](#)

Commodore's Log

Faith Rodell, Commodore

Thank you 2011 Board, I couldn't have done it without you!!! Your many hours of dedication are truly appreciated by all of SCOW. Highlights of new accomplishments this year were: Established a Finance Committee, executed successfully on-line voting, and purchased a new cruiser.

If you missed Hail and Farewell, you missed a good one. It was great evening with a super Asian/Fusion buffet and strong drinks and dancing at the Capital Yacht Club. Best part for me, besides seeing everyone having fun was passing on the Commodore's Regalia to Chris McGraw who is going to be a great Commodore for SCOW next year. Everyone hardily welcomed the new board.

ChaNNels has a new look. To navigate, click on the titles in the blue box on the left, or navigate forward and backward with the buttons at the bottom of the page. This is your newsletter! Please submit your feedback and ideas, or content for next month's ChaNNels to editor@scow.org

Deadline approaching soon, 12/22/11!
First Aid/CPR/AED training opportunity for SCOW members!
Click here for more details.

Click here to see the highlights from the 2011

Hail & Farewell

*Today's fortune cookie:
A calm sea does not make a skilled sailor.
Heather Brooke*

